

I am very happy with the no-call list in wisconsin. It is nice not to be bothered at home at night. Please consider keeping our no-call list the way it is. More annoying phone calls only adds to the stress of daily life. These people need to find a less intrusive way to reach people. Thank you for considering this.